

Membership means More

Being a Farm Bureau member gives you the inside edge on all things agriculture, opens doors to personal and professional growth, supports unparalleled farm advocacy at the local, state and national level, and unlocks valuable savings for you and your farm.

GROW

Farm Bureau members gain skills and knowledge about the agricultural industry to better their agricultural operation, career and personal lives.

CONNECT

Farm Bureau members connect with their peers to develop a knowledgeable network while staying up to date about current events in the ag industry.

ADVOCATE

Farm Bureau members advocate for the safeguarding, growth, and sustainability of the agriculture industry.

SAVE

Farm Bureau extends exclusive discounts to its members, covering a diverse range of personal and professional needs including savings on farm-related purchases, travel, and health and wellness.

For information on local events, contact your county Farm Bureau office. For information on statewide events, visit michfb.com/events.

Not a member? Join today!

Join more than 42,000 farmers across the state in protecting the interests of Michigan's agriculture industry.

Visit michfb.com/join.